Spiritual City

To establish a common shelter for research and teaching Vedas, Indian Philosophy and Ideologies.

Vision and Mission of Samhithaa

1. We have an ambition towards building a philosophical "city" in the lap of the nature within five years and to establish Indian Culture and Sanskrit throughout the world.
2. Samhithaa has a further ambition to establish a common shelter for research and teaching Vedas, Indian Philosophy and Ideologies. From this immense task, we want to create employment for people who are experts in Sanskrit and Yoga and also fulfill the public need for a common place to study this wisdom.
3. We are planning to initiate various activities towards revival of ancient literatures which are in palm-leaf manuscript form with the help of scholars.
4. We aspire to abate the trend of the loss of culture and tradition in our Indian youth and working professionals.
5. We want to introduce traditional Indian wisdom to every citizen by conducting workshops throughout India, especially in various remote places.
6. Children are gems of our future. Samhithaa Trust wants to enlighten children by conducting summer camps which include yoga, meditation and some fun activities.
7. Our organization decided to respond to people's problems by conducting various programs using Yoga, Ayurveda, Meditation, Chanting and Yajna.
8. The Trust intends to initiate a "Karma yoga" program, in which people will work selflessly with others for the greater good and for any country's progress.
9. We have a Vision to translate Indian philosophical texts into various global languages with the help of experts.
10. Discussions are presently taking place to initiate a research program that identifies the use and benefits of Sanskrit and ancient Indian philosophy for applications in modern technology.
